

Selected 2019 Candidates with Stance on Abortion and Voting History

Updated October 21, 2019

The table shows the following candidates, their stance on abortion, and their voting history, to help you determine who to support or oppose (in order by province, then riding):

- All Conservative candidates – We have indicated if they are incumbents or in swing ridings (see our “2019 Candidates to Support and Oppose – Targeted Ridings.”) Additional data:
 - All Conservative incumbents voted to oppose the Canada Summer Jobs attestation requirement except:
 - Leona Alleslev, Michael Barrett, Sylvie Boucher, Michael Cooper, Scot Davidson, Tom Lukiwski, Richard Martel, and Michelle Rempel
 - Conservative incumbents who attended the “March for Life” in Ottawa 2019:
 - Harold Albrecht, Ted Falk, Rachael Harder, Dane Lloyd, Phil McColeman, Glen Motz, and Arnold Viersen.
- Several Liberal, Green, and Independent candidates (in gray), where we have flagged them as indeterminate or anti-choice. Otherwise, all Liberals and Greens are assumed to be pro-choice because of party direction.
- No People’s Party (PPC) or fringe party candidates except Maxime Bernier (in gray), as they have no chance of winning (PPC candidates assumed to be anti-choice).
- No NDP candidates, as all are pro-choice.
